Docket No. N2021-1

NOTICE OF INTERVENTION OF THE
AMERICAN POSTAL WORKERS UNION, AFL-CIO
(May 6, 2021)

Pursuant to 39 C.F.R. § 3010.142, the American Postal Workers Union, AFL-CIO (APWU) submits this Notice of Intervention in the above referenced docket.

The APWU is the exclusive collective bargaining representative of postal employees in the Postal Service's clerk, maintenance, and motor vehicle service divisions nationwide, as well support personnel in Information Technology/Accounting Service Centers, Operating Services facilities, Material Distribution Centers, and professional occupational nurses. The APWU is also certified as the bargaining representative of employees at several companies that supply services to the United States Postal Service as their principal business. The proposed changes will have a significant effect on APWU-represented postal workers as well as mailers, including organizations like the APWU.

APWU also mails millions of letters, periodicals, and packages each year. Our members and retirees make extensive use of postal products and services. As a user of the mail, APWU has further interest in these proposed changes.

Documents relating to the above-captioned proceedings should be served on:
